

Peggy-Sue Khumalo
MSc Economics
Non Executive Director

BlueAlpha Investment Management is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms Nonhlanhla Peggy-Sue Khumalo as an Independent Non Executive Director of the company. Ms Khumalo was previously at the helm of Standard Bank Wealth South Africa. During her tenure as Wealth CE she was responsible for driving the strategic direction and growth initiatives at a regional and overall group level for a business that has assets in excess of R150 billion. Her responsibilities at Standard Bank Wealth SA included custodianship over their short-term and long-term insurance, asset management of retirement funds and high net-worth individuals and a wide variety of fiduciary services for corporate and commercial clients across an extensive geographical footprint. Her professional experience also includes having worked for Investec in the United Kingdom and in South Africa, as a fixed income analyst and investment banker. Ms Khumalo was Head of Public Sector and BEE Financing at Investec Bank where she was instrumental in helping Investec win numerous mandates as SA joint co-lead for the International Bond Issuances for National Treasury as well as driving the overall strategy for black business.

Ms Khumalo holds an MSc Economics from the University of Manchester. A scholar of not only the Archbishop Desmond Tutu Leadership Fellowship, but also a recipient of a scholarship from former President Nelson Mandela funded by Investec. She also holds a BA Hons in Economics and Political Science from the University of Manchester and is an alumnus of Harvard Business School where she completed an Authentic Development Leadership Program.